This ranking compares favorably to Utah's rank of 30th among states in population size. The Utah Symphony presented 75 in-person concerts at Abravanel Hall and in communities throughout Utah, reaching approximately 108,000 audience members during the season. A variety of programs are offered featuring some of the industry's most illustrious artists in performance with the Utah Symphony in programs ranging from Classical Symphonies, to Jazz, to Pops. Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2 - Our board is made up of community leaders and as such some business relationships exist and our conflict of interest policy and process adequately reveals and manages these so they are not conflicts for the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - The Corporation may have two or more appointed ex officio voting Trustees of the Board. These positions shall be comprised of the following: (i) one Utah Symphony Guild representative; (ii) one OnStage Ogden representative; and (iv) such representatives of auxiliary and advisory organizations and guilds as elected by their respective organizations and guilds. Two Musicians, as provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Corporation and American Federation of Musicians, Local 104, are voting Trustees of the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The 990 is prepared by the Controller and CFO, reviewed by Audit and Executive committees. It is also posted to website for entire board review.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Conflict of interest is reviewed at time of entry to board and annually at first meeting of the fiscal year. Management acquires signed statement from each board member. The values governing the affairs of Utah Symphony & Opera (US&O) are Excellence, Integrity, Trust, and Communication. Staff members are encouraged in their individual capacities to represent these values and to exemplify the highest standards of ethical behavior in all they do and say. They are thus encouraged to do their utmost to respect the rights and dignity of other persons; to be honest, accurate, and open-minded in the presentation of information and ideas; when accounting for US&O's assets or handling financial transactions; when soliciting contributions; when representing US&O before governmental leaders, charitable foundations, patrons, and donors; or when dealing with vendors, partners, lessees, and other parties. A conflict of interest is defined as any circumstance that would cast doubt on the ability of a member of the staff to act with total objectivity with regard to the US&O's best interest. No member shall use his or her position, or the knowledge gained from his or her position in such a manner that a conflict arises between the interest of the organization and the staff member's personal interests. An actual or potential conflict of interest may occur when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in personal gain for that employee or for a relative as a result of business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. US&O relies on its employees to exercise their responsibilities to the organization in good faith. As a consequence of representing US&O, employees may be in a position to establish personal relationships with patrons and donors or obtain confidential information concerning them. Employees may not, directly or indirectly solicit or accept money, loans, expensive gifts, travel, extravagant entertainment, or preferential treatment from such individuals. Employees may not use any information obtained about patrons and donors to further their personal interests during their employment with US&O or after their termination with US&O. In addition to this, the materials, products, designs, plans, ideas, and data of US&O should never be given or sold to an outside agency, firm or person except through normal channels and with appropriate authorization. Any improper transfer of material or disclosure of information, even though it is not apparent that an employee has personally gained by such action, constitutes unacceptable conduct. Any employee who participates in such a practice will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including possible discharge. Having a conflict of interest may not necessarily indicate a professional transaction cannot occur. However, it is the duty of each staff member to disclose annually any actual or possible conflicts of interest in writing to the Director of Human Resources and Department Head. In the absence of an HR director all disclosures may be communicated to the COO. The employee is expected to provide all material facts and personal interests that may be determined to present a conflict of interest before any discussion or negotiation of a transaction takes place. Immediately upon becoming aware of the possible conflict of interest, the Director of Human Resources and Department Head will discuss the conflict with the COO to determine whether a particular conflict of interest is fair to the organization. The Director of Human Resources, and or Department Head will respond in writing to the employee within 30 days of disclosure. If agreement is not reached, the final determination will be made by the President/CEO.
