	Code 711130 SYMPHONIC CONCERTS - Utah Symphony was founded during the Great Depression as a Works Progress Administration orchestra under Roosevelt's New Deal. Today, the Utah Symphony is the premiere orchestra in the Intermountain West and one of only seventeen year-round orchestras in the nation. This ranking compares favorably to Utah's rank of 30th among states in population size. Over the past year, Utah Symphony presented 80 in-person concerts at Abravanel Hall and numerous concerts in communities throughout Utah, reaching approximately 115,000 audience members during the season. A variety of programs are offered featuring some of the industry's most illustrious artists in performance with the Utah Symphony in programs ranging from Classical Symphonies, to Jazz, to Pops. Please see utahsymphony.org for more information. The Utah Symphony Utah Opera's Education Program benefits Utah's children and is one of the largest in the country, reached approximately 55,800 students and 2,400 teachers during the fiscal year. Through our education program offerings, each school district in Utah is visited every three to five years. The reach of this programming is far greater than performing arts organizations

	21,000. Utah Opera offered 24 performances of four mainstage productions this year. Utah Opera has a nationally-renowned costume shop, and features some of the top singers, directors, conductors, and designers from around the country. A Resident Artists program provides aspiring young singers an opportunity to refine their craft while performing secondary roles and singing in education and community outreach programs. Please see utahopera.org for more information. A prime example of the services we are able to render to the arts community is the value housed in the Utah Opera Production Studios. One of a kind facility, the Utah Opera Production Studios houses a team of artisans, designers, and skilled craftsmen who bring the art form of opera to life for Utah Opera and performing arts organizations around the world through its sets and costumes construction and rentals programs.
	The Utah Opera Production Studios bring the integration of all production activities of the Utah Symphony Utah Opera to one resourceful location (Costume Shop & Rentals, Prop Studio, Scenic Shop & Scenic Studio, Set Storage, Assembly Bay, Rehearsal Hall) and allows the organization to utilize a business model which combines all aspects of both symphonic and operatic art forms. (Continued on Schedule O, Statement 4)

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 1a - In the absence of Board action or in the event that the Board is unable to take action on a particular matter, the Executive Committee shall have all of the powers and exercise all of the duties of the Board in managing the business of the Corporation. Any such action taken by the Executive Committee in the absence or inability of the Board to take action shall be considered for ratification by the Board at the next regular meeting or special meeting of the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2 - Our board is made up of community leaders and as such some business relationships exist and our conflict of interest policy and process adequately reveals and manages these so they are not conflicts for the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Prepared by CFO, reviewed by Finance and Executive committees, posted to website for entire board review.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The values governing the affairs of Utah Symphony & Opera (USUO) are Excellence, Integrity, Trust, and Communication. Each fiscal year every member of the Board of Trustees is asked to review USUO's Ethical Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Statement, then indicate any potential conflicts (or that they have none) and return the signed form to be kept with the organization's corporate records. Staff members are encouraged in their individual capacities to represent these values and to exemplify the highest standards of ethical behavior in all they do and say. They are thus encouraged to do their utmost to respect the rights and dignity of other persons; to be honest, accurate, and open-minded in the presentation of information and ideas; when accounting for USUO's assets or handling financial transactions; when soliciting contributions; when representing USUO before governmental leaders, charitable foundations, patrons, and donors; or when dealing with vendors, partners, lessees, and other parties. A conflict of interest is defined as any circumstance that would cast doubt on the ability of a member of the staff to act with total objectivity with regard to the USUO's best interest. No member shall use his or her position, or the knowledge gained from his or her position in such a manner that a conflict arises between the interest of the organization and the member's personal interests. An actual or potential conflict of interest may occur when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in personal gain for that employee or for a relative as a result of business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. USUO relies on its employees to exercise their responsibilities to the organization in good faith. As a consequence of representing USUO, employees may be in a position to establish personal relationships with patrons and donors or obtain confidential information concerning them. Employees may not, directly or indirectly solicit or accept money, loans, expensive gifts, travel, extravagant entertainment, or preferential treatment from such individuals. Employees may not use any information obtained about patrons and donors to further their personal interests during their employment with USUO or after their termination with USUO. In addition to this, the materials, products, designs, plans, ideas, and data of USUO should never be given or sold to an outside agency, firm or person except through normal channels and with appropriate authorization. Any improper transfer of material or disclosure of information, even though it is not apparent that an employee has personally gained by such action, constitutes unacceptable conduct. Any employee who participates in such a practice will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including possible discharge. Having a conflict of interest may not necessarily indicate a professional transaction cannot occur. However, it is the duty of each member to disclose annually any actual or possible conflicts of interest in writing to the Director of Human Resources and Department Head. Employees faced with an actual or a possible conflict of interest must immediately notify HR and their supervisor in writing. The employee must specify the situation and all facts surrounding the conflict of interest and reason as to why the situation is/is not a conflict of interest. Upon receipt, HR will review the notification with their supervisor and Department Head to determine whether or not a conflict of interest is present. If agreement is not reached between the supervisor and HR, notification will be submitted to the CEO for final determination. Once a determination is made, HR will respond to the employee, in writing of the resolution. Determination and response will be made no later than 30 days from date of notification. HR will place the determination along with all documentation in the employee's Personnel File.
