

Georges Bizet

(zhorzh bee-ZAY)

1838 – 1875

- Bizet was born in Paris, France.
- He came from a musical family and got his first music lessons at home.
- When he was just 10 years old, he went to the Paris Conservatoire – a famous music college in France.
- When he was 19, he won a very special prize that paid him to study music and compose for three years in Italy.
- Bizet was especially well known for the operas he wrote.
- The Farandole was written with other music to be performed during a play.
- Bizet composed 30 operas, 70+ vocal songs, 20 orchestral works, and many piano and chamber pieces.

Listen to Les Toreadors from Carmen Suite No. 1.
We think you'll recognize it!