Claude Debussy

FRENCH COMPOSER OF THE 20TH CENTURY

BORN August 22, 1862 near Paris France
DIED March 25, 1918 in Paris

FAMOUS WORKS INCLUDE:

- Claire de Lune*, 1890
- Prélude à l'après-midi d'un faune*, 1894
- Nocturnes for Orchestra*, 1899
- La mer*, 1905
- Two sets of piano Préludes*, 1910 and 1913
- Images*, 1912
- Jeux*, 1913

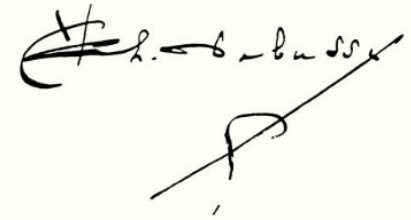

INTERESTING FACTS:

Debussy did not come from a musical family, but found he was a talented pianist around his 10th birthday.

In 1872 he enrolled in the world-famous Paris Conservatory of Music. While very talented, he was not an ideal student. Often skipping classes, and refusing to follow the rules of composing that his teachers insisted he follow.

Debussy insisted that his La Mer was NOT a symphony. Even though it contains three symphonic movements. Debussy preferred to call it a set of "symphonic sketches."
