

Music Scavenger Hunt

Ludwig van Beethoven

Symphony No. 9 "Ode to Joy"

Careful listening and watching can make any piece of music come to life. We have listed some clues below for musical moments to recognize as you listen to and watch our YouTube recording of this piece here: www.youtube.com/watch?v=VXUIzTelpWA . Put a checkmark next to each clue that you notice. If there is a blank in the clue, fill in the blank. You might need to listen to each recording a few times to catch everything.

- The melody of "Ode to Joy" is first played by which string instrument?
- Listen for the brass and woodwinds to take the melody at 0:40. Which brass instruments can you distinctly hear?
- The recording cuts off before the end of the phrase. How many additional notes are needed to finish the iconic phrase?
- Bonus question: This piece is the official anthem of which country/countries? If you don't know, this is a fun topic to research. 😊
- Bonus question: Which Muppet character recorded his version of Ode to Joy all by himself? www.youtube.com/watch?v=VnT7pT6zCcA

1. Violin
2. Trumpet, French Horn
3. Two notes
4. The European Union
5. Beaker

UTAH SYMPHONY
THIERRY FISCHER, MUSIC DIRECTOR