

UTAH SYMPHONY
2021-22 SALUTE TO YOUTH AUDITIONS
PRELIMINARY AND FINAL AUDITION INFORMATION

Please read this thoroughly.

SALUTE TO YOUTH APPLICATIONS

The online application must be completed by August 10, 2021. The online application will be available at utahsymphony.org/education/students/#salutetoyouth.

Applications will not be considered complete without the following.

- Payment: After you complete the application, you will be directed to a link for online payment of the application fee. There is nonrefundable $40 application fee for soloists and $20 for each member of an ensemble.
- After submitting the online application you will receive an email with information about how to submit your preliminary audition recording through a Google form. Allow one business day to receive this email.

Be sure that the only identifying information for your recording is the Division and Number which will be assigned to you in this same email. Also be sure that when you save the digital file of the recording to your computer, you name or rename the recording using only this information (division and number).

- Instructor approval is not required.

Please note the dates for the Salute to Youth Competition below; Applications will be available by July 1, 2021:

Now- July 29, 2021	Ensemble repertoire requests sent to kjohnson@usuo.org
August 10, 2021	Applications and entrance fee must be completed
August 25, 2021	All preliminary audition recordings must be submitted
September 10, 2021	Results of Salute to Youth preliminary auditions emailed
September 18, 2021	Salute to Youth final auditions

Soloists will be selected at the final auditions for the Salute to Youth Concert on November, 2 2021; In most cases, final audition results are emailed the same day as the auditions (September 18, 2021).

Utah Symphony Salute to Youth PRELIMINARY Auditions 2021-22
RULES

These rules apply to the preliminary round of auditions only. Please do not ask for exceptions to these rules. Read them carefully, as failure to follow these rules will disqualify you.

General Guidelines

1. Students who are Utah residents will compete in the divisions as outlined below.
 - a. Residency is defined as: having lived in Utah for a continuous 12 months prior to submission of the application, and/or being claimed as a dependent for tax purposes by a Utah resident.
2. All preliminary audition recordings will be submitted using a Google form and will be audio only.
3. A separate application and fee must be submitted for each piece played in an audition with the following stipulations:
 - Students may audition with only one solo piece on a single instrument.
 - Students may audition as a soloist on different instruments.
 - Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on the same instrument.
 - Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on different instruments.
4. Each student in an ensemble needs to submit a separate application.
5. Applications must be completed online by August 10, 2021. After you complete the application, you will be directed to a link for online payment of the application fee. There is nonrefundable $40 application fee for soloists and $20 for each member of an ensemble. The application will not be complete without payment.
6. Students who performed as soloists or in an ensemble in the previous season's Salute to Youth are not eligible to audition for Salute to Youth the following season. Due to the cancellation of 2020-21 Salute to Youth, this rule for the 21-22 competition will be nullified. Students who meet the other eligibility requirements are allowed to audition.
7. During their years of eligibility, students may perform up to three times on a Salute to Youth concert.
 - Only two of these may be solo performances, leaving one opportunity to perform as part of an ensemble. A student may perform more than once as part of an ensemble, but is limited to a total of three Salute performances as outlined above.
 - Performance limits are counted for an individual with no distinctions made for multiple instruments or solo vs. ensemble performances.
 - A student who performs on different instruments, on the same or different concerts, will still count each individual piece as a separate performance.
 - A student who performs a solo and in an ensemble, on the same or different concerts, will still count each individual piece as a separate performance.
 - Performance on an All-Star Evening concert does not count towards the three-performance Salute to Youth limit.

Repertoire Guidelines

Selections must be from the current Salute to Youth Repertoire List found at the end of this document. No modifications should be made to the original solo part, except as designated in that list.

Recording Guidelines

1. Each recording should have just one movement of a concerto from the 2021-22 Salute to Youth repertoire list. Students should submit the same concerto movement for their preliminary audition that they would perform in the Salute to Youth final auditions and concert, if selected.
2. Accompaniment must be included and must be a live recording with piano accompaniment only.
3. There should be no speaking on the recording. Recordings with any speech will be disqualified.
4. No editing, splicing or digital manipulation of the recording is permitted. The recording should be reflective of the performer's ability in a live situation.
5. Do not include the student's name anywhere in the file name of the recording when you save and upload it. Including your name anywhere in this file will disqualify you from the auditions. Recordings should be named as Instrument Division and Number. The Instrument Division and Number will be emailed to you within one business day of completing your application.
6. It is not necessary to have your recording made professionally. The recordings will be listened to for the quality of your performance, not the quality of the recording.

Deadlines (no exceptions)

1. Ensemble repertoire requests for approval must be received by July 29, 2021.
2. Applications must be completed by August 10, 2021.
3. All preliminary audition recordings must be submitted by August 25, 2021.

Things That Will Disqualify You

1. Failure to follow any of the Salute to Youth audition rules.
2. Failure to submit payment.
3. Talking of any kind on the recording.
4. Having any identification other than your division and number on the recording file name.
5. Using orchestral or pre-recorded piano accompaniment instead of live piano accompaniment on the preliminary audition recording.
6. Absence of piano accompaniment on preliminary audition recording.
7. Applying with an ensemble piece that has not been approved in advance.

Eligibility and Application

1. All applicants must be residents of Utah and must have a valid Utah mailing address.
 - a. Residency is defined as: having lived in Utah for a continuous 12 months prior to submission of the application, and/or being claimed as a dependent for tax purposes by a Utah resident.
2. Up to three students in all divisions of the Salute to Youth Preliminary auditions will be invited to the final auditions for Salute to Youth.
3. Typically, Students who performed on the previous spring's Youth Guild recital are also eligible for Salute to Youth final auditions, subject to all other Salute rules and guidelines including application deadlines and fees. Please note the changes to the following:
 - Students who were scheduled to perform at the 2020 Youth Guild Recital ARE NOT eligible to advance directly to the final auditions.
 - Applications must be completed online by August 10, 2021. After you complete the application, you will be directed to a link for online payment of the application fee. There is nonrefundable $40 application fee for soloists and $20 for each member of an ensemble. The application will not be complete without payment.
 - A separate application and fee must be submitted for each piece played in an audition with the following stipulations:
 - Students may audition with only one solo piece on a single instrument.
 - Students may audition as a soloist on different instruments.
 - Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on the same instrument.
 - Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on different instruments.
 - Each student in an ensemble needs to submit a separate application.
 - Students who performed as soloists or in an ensemble on the 2019-2020 Salute to Youth ARE eligible to audition for Salute to Youth in 2021-22.
 - During their years of eligibility students may perform up to three times on a Salute to Youth concert.
 - Only two of these may be solo performances, leaving one opportunity to perform as part of an ensemble. A student may perform more than once as part of an ensemble, but is limited to a total of three Salute performances as outlined above.
 - Performance limits are counted for an individual with no distinctions made for multiple instruments or solo vs. ensemble performances.
 - A student who performs on different instruments, on the same or different concerts, will still count each individual piece as a separate performance.
 - A student who performs a solo and in an ensemble, on the same or different concerts, will still count each individual piece as a separate performance.
 - Performance on an All-Star Evening concert does not count towards the three-performance Salute to Youth limit.

Required Repertoire and Accompanist

1. Selections must be from the Salute to Youth Repertoire List included at the end of this document. No modifications should be made to the original solo part, except as designated in that list.
2. Students must audition for Salute to Youth finals with the same selection performed in the preliminary auditions, and this piece must fit the Salute to Youth repertoire requirements.
3. Contestants must be prepared to perform the entire movement or vocal selection, with cadenza, if appropriate.
4. Contestants, including pianists, shall provide their own piano accompanists. Contestants will not be allowed to audition without an accompanist. Please keep in mind that the quality of accompaniment may affect your own performance.
5. Solo contestants must perform from memory. Ensembles may use music.

Audition Information

1. All final auditions will take place at Abravanel Hall on September 18, 2021.
2. Audition times will be assigned by the Utah Symphony and cannot be changed. Contestants must arrive at least 30 minutes before their scheduled audition time.
3. The length of auditions will be at the discretion of Utah Symphony and the judges. They may be adjusted due to the number of entries. Judges reserve the right to stop a performance at any time, or to request the rendition of isolated sections of a piece.
4. A warm-up room may be assigned at check-in based on audition time, depending on COVID-19 protocols.
5. Prior to final auditions, contestants should submit an electronic biography for publicity purposes.
6. At the time of check-in contestants must turn in a solo part or score for the judges. No names may appear on the judges' part or score.
7. Judges receive no information about competitors' identities, teachers or biographies. At no time prior to or during the audition is a competitor allowed to disclose to the judges any information regarding this information (identity, teacher, or biography).
8. All auditions are closed to any audience. All persons competing or waiting for a competitor must remain in the designated waiting areas. Video and audio recording of auditions is strictly prohibited during the competition.
9. Any expenses related to audition or performance are the responsibility of the contestant.
10. Judges are solely responsible for determining the number of competitors to be offered an opportunity to perform with Utah Symphony and the placement of soloists on the concert program.
11. Selection of soloists by the audition committee is final. If selected, the auditioned work is to be performed in the Salute to Youth concert. No repertoire change is permitted.
12. Any participant submitting false data on any application or information form related to the Salute to Youth selection process may be immediately disqualified at the sole discretion of Utah Symphony.
13. COURTESY AND SPORTSMANSHIP: Utah Symphony competitions are designed to provide a rewarding educational experience to students whose hard work and dedication has already been proven. Students benefit greatly by learning to display proper and courteous behavior, even when faced with the stress of competition or the disappointment of not placing. Competitors, parents and teachers share in the responsibility of upholding these standards.

Interfering with contestants or competition procedures, using abusive or offensive language, or making disrespectful remarks concerning contestants, parents, teachers, judges, staff, volunteers or the Competition instills in students values in direct opposition to those intended to be taught by this Competition.

Any behavior deemed by Utah Symphony administration to degrade the high quality of courtesy and musicianship expected of those invited to compete may result in disqualification for the current or future years. This statement applies to students, parents and teachers before, during, and after the competition.

14. Failure to follow any of the above rules will lead to automatic disqualification from the audition or performance.

Utah Symphony reserves the right to make binding decisions in unusual or questionable circumstances in regards to audition requirements and regulations, or to their intent, or to any situation not specifically covered by the above.

SALUTE TO YOUTH APPROVED REPERTOIRE LIST 2021-22

Please check the list carefully. Selections have been made by Utah Symphony artistic staff with the following criteria in mind:

- Repertoire for young musicians performing with a professional orchestra should reflect mastery of the fundamental repertoire for each instrument.
- With multiple soloists on the Salute to Youth concert, repertoire is selected to allow for the best performance with limited, shared rehearsal time.
- Financial consideration for music rental and purchase costs is a factor. To the greatest extent possible, repertoire is limited to pieces in the library of Utah Symphony.
- The rules state that no modifications should be made to the solo part. This holds for the majority of pieces on the repertoire list. There are a few pieces, especially those with connected movements, for which we will make exceptions to this rule. Those pieces are noted with an asterisk and the allowable cuts for those movements can be found at the end of the repertoire list. No other cuts will be acceptable.

Ensemble Category

Concertos written for multiple solo instruments will be considered for audition for 2021-22. Because the variety of possible ensembles is great, repertoire is not specified here. However, all ensemble repertoire must be submitted for approval by Utah Symphony by July 29, 2021. Requests for approval should be sent to Ky Johnson at kjohnson@usuo.org. The criteria for consideration will include those at the top of this repertoire list as well as the additional considerations for ensembles below:

- 1) There will only be one ensemble category for the preliminary auditions. All ages between 8 and 19 may participate in an ensemble together.
- 2) Up to 3 ensembles may be selected to play in the Salute to Youth final auditions.
- 3) There will be one application fee for each ensemble.
- 4) Each member of an ensemble must fill out a separate application which includes the signatures of their teacher and a parent.
- 5) If a student qualifies in both a solo and ensemble category for Salute to Youth final auditions, they may audition in both categories.
- 6) Concertos for multiple pianos are not eligible for consideration.
- 7) For a multitude of reasons, pieces outside of the standard ensemble repertoire are not likely to be approved
