

UTAH SYMPHONY
2023 SALUTE TO YOUTH
SOLO AND SMALL ENSEMBLE COMPETITION
PRELIMINARY AND FINAL AUDITION INFORMATION

Entering its 63rd year, the Salute to Youth concerto concert is a long-standing Utah Symphony tradition in which Utah's young musicians in piano, strings, winds, brass, percussion, harp, voice, and small ensemble compete for the opportunity to perform as a soloist with the Utah Symphony. This concerto competition is committed to supporting, fostering, and recognizing extraordinary young musicians in the state of Utah. Auditions are adjudicated by the Symphony's distinguished panel who look for exceptional technique and musicality. The final competition takes place in September with preliminary auditions in July. Up to three winners from each age division will solo with the Utah Symphony on Wednesday, November 22, 2023.

COMPETITION STEPS:

1. Complete the online application by July 1, 2023.
2. Make a nonrefundable payment of $40 for soloists and $20 for each ensemble member. Payment is collected after submitting your application. Need-based scholarships are available in the application to students on the basis of annual household income. For more information please email Dr. Jessica Wiley at jwiley@usuo.org
3. Submit your preliminary recording. Within 3 business days of submitting your online application and making your payment, you will receive an assigned number and a Google Form in which you can upload your recording. Your recording must be labeled only with your instrument, division, and number. Do not put your name or anyone else's on your recording.
4. Results of the preliminary auditions will be emailed to you by August 14, 2023. If you are selected to perform in the final auditions you must submit an electronic biography for publicity purposes. These can be emailed to Dr. Jessica Wiley at jwiley@usuo.org
5. Final auditions, in person at Abravanel Hall on September 11, 2023. Within 24 hours of competing in the final round, the audition results will be emailed. The winners will solo with the Utah Symphony on November 22, 2023. Please note that the final audition round will be performed behind a screen and repertoire must be memorized.

Salute to Youth Audition Rules

*Failure to follow any of these rules will disqualify you. No exceptions to these rules are allowed.

Courtesy and Sportsmanship:

Utah Symphony competitions are designed to provide a rewarding educational experience to students whose hard work and dedication has already been proven. Students benefit greatly by learning to display proper and courteous behavior, even when faced with the stress of competition or the disappointment of not placing. Competitors, parents, and teachers share in the responsibility of upholding these standards.

Anyone interfering with contestants or competition procedures; using abusive or offensive language; or making disrespectful remarks concerning contestants, parents, teachers, judges, staff, volunteers or the competition is strictly prohibited. Any behavior deemed by Utah Symphony administration to degrade the high quality of courtesy and musicianship expected of those invited to compete may result in disqualification for the current and/or future years.

Eligibility

1. Must be a Utah resident and have a valid Utah mailing address.
 - Residency is defined as having lived in Utah for a continuous 12 months prior to submission of the application, and/or being claimed as a dependent for tax purposes by a Utah resident.
2. Must fit into the instrument and age divisions; see page 1.
3. Previous winners are not eligible for the following years competition. For example, if you won in 2022 you are not eligible for this year's 2023 competition.
4. Each individual is allowed three total performances, not concerts, with the Utah Symphony regardless of playing a different instrument or being apart of an ensemble.
 - Soloists are allowed two performances total, which makes the third possible performance a small ensemble.
 - Small ensembles are allowed three performances total.

Application & Fees:

1. Applications must be completed online by July 1, 2023
2. Pay a nonrefundable fee: $40 for soloists; $20 for each member of an ensemble.
 - a. After submitting your application, you will receive an email to make the online payment. The application will not be complete without payment. Need-based scholarships are available.
3. Each individual in an ensemble needs to submit a separate application and pay the $20 fee.
4. A separate application and fee must be submitted for each piece played.
 - a. Students may audition with only one solo piece on a single instrument.
 - b. Students may audition as a soloist on different instruments.
 - c. Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on the same instrument.
 - d. Students may audition as a soloist and in an ensemble on different instruments.

Repertoire

1. Choose one movement of a concerto from the approved 2023 Salute to Youth Repertoire List. See page 4-8.
2. Record the entire movement of your piece including cadenzas. This selection must also be your piece for the final audition round and the concert, if selected.
3. Every soloist, including pianists and small ensembles, must use piano accompaniment in your recording. No other accompaniment or recorded accompaniment is allowed. You are responsible for finding your accompanist; accompanists are not provided.
4. No modifications should be made to the original solo part, except as designated in the Salute to Youth Repertoire List.
5. Your piece must be memorized for the final audition and the concert; however, small ensembles are allowed to use music for the final addition and concert.

Recording Guidelines

1. All preliminary audition recordings must be audio only, no video.
2. No talking of any kind is allowed in the recording. Recordings with any speech are disqualified.
3. Submit your recording using the Google Form sent to you. This Google Form will be emailed to you within 3 business days of submitting your application fee.
4. Label your recording only with your age division, instrument, and number. Do not include any names anywhere in the file name of the recording when you save and upload it. Any names anywhere in this file will disqualify you from the competition. Numbers are assigned after you submit your application.
5. No editing, splicing, or digital manipulation of the recording is permitted. The recording should be reflective of the applicant's ability in a live situation.
6. Recordings are listened to for the quality of your performance, not the quality of the recording; thus, it is not necessary to have your recording professionally made.
7. Recordings must be from no earlier than March 1, 2023.

Final Audition Round Rules

1. Every soloist, including pianists and small ensembles, must provide their own piano accompaniment; accompanists are not provided. Please keep in mind that the quality of accompaniment may affect your own performance.
2. Final auditions will take place at Abravanel Hall on September 11, 2023. All auditions will be performed behind a screen. You will perform in person but not be seen by the judges.
3. Audition times will be assigned by the Utah Symphony and cannot be changed. Contestants must arrive at least 30 minutes before their scheduled audition time.
4. The length of auditions will be at the discretion of the judges and may be adjusted due to the number of entries. Judges reserve the right to stop an audition at any time, or to request the rendition of isolated sections of the audition piece.
5. At check-in
 - a. Hand in a copy of the solo part or score for the judges. No names may appear on these pages.
 - b. A warm-up room may be assigned at check-in based on audition time.
6. Judges receive no information about competitors' identities, teachers, or biographies. At no time prior to or during the audition is anyone allowed to disclose to the judges any information regarding the finalists.
7. Judges are solely responsible for determining the number of winners and the order of performance for the concert.
8. All auditions are closed to any audience. All persons competing or waiting for a competitor must remain in the designated waiting areas.
9. Video and/or audio recording of the final auditions is strictly prohibited.
10. Selection of soloists by the audition committee is final. If selected, the auditioned work is to be performed in the Salute to Youth concert. No repertoire change is permitted.
11. Any participant submitting false data during any part of the competition will be immediately disqualified at the sole discretion of Utah Symphony.
12. Any expenses related to the audition or performance are the responsibility of the contestant.

Failure to follow any of the above rules will lead to automatic disqualification from the audition or performance.

Utah Symphony reserves the right to make binding decisions in unusual or questionable circumstances in regards to audition requirements and regulations, or to their intent, or to any situation not specifically covered by the above.

SALUTE TO YOUTH REPERTOIRE LIST 2023

Please check the list carefully. Selections have been made by Utah Symphony artistic staff with the following criteria in mind:

- Repertoire for young musicians performing with a professional orchestra should reflect mastery of the fundamental repertoire for each instrument.
- With multiple soloists on the Salute to Youth concert, repertoire is selected to allow for the best performance with limited, shared rehearsal time.
- Financial consideration for music rental and purchase costs is a factor. To the greatest extent possible, repertoire is limited to pieces in the library of Utah Symphony.
- The rules state that no modifications should be made to the solo part. This holds for the majority of pieces on the repertoire list. There are a few pieces, especially those with connected movements, for which we will make exceptions to this rule. Those pieces are noted with an asterisk and the allowable cuts for those movements can be found at the end of the repertoire list. No other cuts will be acceptable.

Instrument Categories:

Small Ensemble

Concertos written for multiple solo instruments will be considered for audition for 2023-24; however, pieces outside of the standard ensemble repertoire are not likely to be approved. Because the variety of possible ensembles is great, repertoire is not specified here. All ensemble repertoire must be submitted for approval by Utah Symphony by June 5, 2023. Requests for approval should be sent to Dr. Jessica Wiley, jwiley@usuo.org

Concertos for multiple pianos are not eligible for consideration.
