

Music Scavenger Hunt

Antonín Dvořák

Symphony No. 9
"From the New World"

Careful listening and watching can make any piece of music come to life. We have listed some clues below for musical moments to recognize as you listen to and watch our YouTube recording of this piece here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ey8F9OukMKY>. Put a checkmark next to each clue that you notice. If there is a blank in the clue, fill in the blank. You might need to listen to each recording a few times to catch everything.

- What instrument family has the melody first? Second? Third?
- Do the dynamics increase or decrease with each iteration of the melody?
- What accompanying instruments help the section of the music beginning at 0:29 sound so intense?
- Bonus question: At 0:08 of this clip, what instrument in the woodwind family plays the melody?

1. Brass, Woodwinds, Strings
2. Increase
3. Strings
4. Oboe