Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2 - Our board is made up of community leaders and as such some business relationships exist and our conflict of interest policy and process adequately reveals and manages these so they are not conflicts for the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - We have several guilds-The Symphony Guild, Ogden Opera Guild--and the Ogden Symphony Ballet Association. All are entitled to ex officio board position by election. The orchestra union also elects two members to serve on the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Prepared by CFO, reviewed by Finance, Audit and Executive committees, posted to website for entire board review.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The values governing the affairs of US&O are Excellence, Integrity, Trust, and Communication. Staff members are encouraged in their individual capacities to represent these values and to exemplify the highest standards of ethical behavior in all that they do and say. They are thus encouraged to do their utmost to respect the rights and dignity of other persons; to be honest, accurate and open-minded in the presentation of information and ideas; when accounting for US&O's assets or handling financial transactions; when soliciting contributions; when representing Utah Symphony & Opera before governmental leaders, charitable foundations, patrons and donors; or when dealing with vendors, partners, lessees, and other third parties. A conflict of interest is defined as any circumstance that would cast doubt on the ability of a member of the staff to act with total objectivity with regard to the US&O's best interest. No member shall use his or her position, or the knowledge gained from his or her position, in such a manner that a conflict arises between the interest of the organization and the staff member's personal interests. An actual or potential conflict of interest may occur when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in personal gain for that employee or for a relative as a result of business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. Utah Symphony & Opera relies on its employees to exercise their responsibilities to the organization in good faith. As a consequence of representing Utah Symphony & Opera, employees may be in a position to establish personal relationships with patrons and donors or obtain confidential information concerning them. Employees may not, directly or indirectly, solicit or accept money, loans, expensive gifts, travel, extravagant entertainment, or preferential treatment from such individuals. Employees may not use any information obtained about patrons and donors to further their personal interests during their employment with US&O or after their termination with US&O. In addition to this, the materials, products, designs, plans, ideas and data of US&O should never be given or sold to an outside agency, firm or person except through normal channels and with appropriate authorization. Any improper transfer of material or disclosure of information, even though it is not apparent that an employee has personally gained by such action, constitutes unacceptable conduct. Any employee who participates in such a practice will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including possible discharge. Having a conflict of interest may not necessarily indicate a professional transaction cannot occur. However, it is the duty of each staff member to disclose annually any actual or possible conflicts of interest in writing to the Director of Human Resources and Department Head. In the absence of an HR director all disclosures may be communicated to the COO. The employee is expected to provide all material facts and personal interests that may be determined to present a conflict of interest before any discussion or negotiation of a transaction takes place. Immediately upon becoming aware of the possible conflict of interest, the Director of Human Resources and Department Head will discuss the conflict with the COO to determine whether a particular conflict of interest is fair to the organization. The Director of Human Resources and or Department Head will respond in writing to the employee within 30 days of disclosure. If agreement is not reached, the final determination will be made by the President/CEO.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - League of American Orchestras Survey for salaries, recruiting firm using comparable data, task force of board members as a search committee.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - We post to our website, provide copies upon request as well as publishing board meeting schedules in the newspaper which allows interested persons to attend meetings and request information. Conflict of interest policy is collected annually.
